Frankfort hatters

An estimated crowd of 25,000 people witnessed the Frankfort 1890's parade Sunday afternoon. Hats, dogs, ice cream and railroad hats were in predominance. More photos and parade winners on Page Eight.

Zone change requested

FRANKFORT — A public hearing will be held by the Will County Zoning Board of Appeals on Tuesday, Sept. 12, at 8:15 p.m. in the Ann Rutledge Grade School on 80th Avenue in Lincoln Estates regarding the zoning changes requested by the 3-H Building Corporation, Dendino's Restaurant Liquor License Application and an amusement license requested by a property owner on north Harlem Avenue near I-80.

3-H Building Corp. has requested a change in the already approved zoning for its 106 acre holding north of Vollmer Road on Harlem from all multi-family units to single and multi-family units.

Glen Coburn, chairman of the Frankfort Township Planning Commission, and other members of the commission are not completely satisfied with the 3-H plans for roads and other land use. The agreed upon contributions to the area schools and other public bodies have also failed to meet with the commissions approval.

Stanley Grosshandler, general counsel for 3-H and a recently appointed vice-president of the corporation, is opposed to what he calls forced contributions to schools and other public bodies. He feels that the government bodies forcing private enterprise to pay these sums are acting unconstitutionally. He says that he is "violently opposed" to the practice.

The 3-H Corp. agreed to contribute $10 per household to the Frankfort Township Fire Department, $1,000 to the Frankfort Township Library District, with restrictions, and approximately $150 per household to the District 161 schools. Lincoln-Way High School is still negotiating with the builders.

The second site owned by 3-H Corp. is the 220 acre area just south of the Frankfort Square development divided by 80th Avenue. This sight plan meets with the land use recommendations of the planning commission, according to Coburn.

The Frankfort Township Planning Commission was established to help the builders and area residents develop Frankfort Township in a sound and reasonable manner. This unofficial body has saved township taxpayers thousands of dollars to date by requiring developers to meet with sound engineering practices and density laws.

The group has retained the services of Success Research Consultants of Olympia Fields, County and Municipal Planning Engineers, to advise and consult with them. Fees paid to this firm are billed back to the builders by the township, by agreement, resulting in still more savings to area taxpayers.

When fully completed, the two 3-H projects in Frankfort Township are expected to have a population of nearly 8,000 persons according to the developers. This will make it one of the largest developments in Will County.

Developers want a 'go'

MOKENA — A meeting was scheduled for Tuesday night in the village hall where the village board and the developers of a planned unit community could discuss it in some detail.

The developers, Sidney Bloom and Tom Phillips, are hopeful the board will give approval of the undertaking so they can get the project going, according to their attorney, Larry Wennlund, of New Lenox.

Phillips and Bloom have an option on Doogan Farm, 319 acres north and south of U.S. 30, lying on the west side of Wolf Road. The sooner they get approval of the project, the sooner they can complete the other arrangements, including financing, it was reported.

They stressed at the meeting of the village board Aug. 22, that if the board would give approval of the project they could go ahead with the plans.

There was also the pre-annexation agreement and other matters to be considered, it was said.

Plans for the development call for 1,766 dwellings units, made up of single family dwellings, condominium-fourplexes, garden apartments and townhouses. According to Bloom 23 per cent of the area will be left open and the overall density will be five and one half units per acre.

Phillips and Bloom also have an interest in the Owens Land Trust which is adjacent to the Doogan farm to the west. A planned unit development was scheduled for the Owens Land Trust property but there has been no construction there.

Bloom said that the development of the Doogan property would take seven or eight years.

Color TV awarded at C of C golf outing

MOKENA — Showers, followed by heavy downpours, soaked fairways and golfers but failed to dampen the enthusiasm of those attending the second annual golf outing of the Mokena Chamber of Commerce at Silver Lake Country Club.

Those who played in the forenoon either escaped the rain or encountered only light bursts. But as the day wore on the clouds became thicker and so did the rains. The late finishers would have dried faster if they could have been wrung out.

Being rain soaked was not without its compensation, however. Most of the players received some sort of prize with the principal awards going to members, were Bill Mutsch, low gross, 92; Bonnie Clegg, 120; and Hickey and Bonnie Clegg who had low net scores, 77 and 82 respectively.

Non-member guests who received awards were: Herb Crabb, Marley, 70, low net; Tom Scarth, New Lenox, 80, low gross Scarth also received a prize for the longest drive.

Dick Bell, vice president of the Tinley Park Chamber of Commerce, had high score among the men, with a 151. Barbara Schissler, Oak Forest had this distinction among the women guests. She carded a 151.

Handing out the prizes were Anthony Dina Sr., C of C president; Ed Podkolski, David Pelly, Jim Venuso, Vincent DiBartolomeo, Polly Ryan and Judy Niemann.

The major prize, a 19-inch color TV set, went to Jack Newton, Lincoln Estates.

Petition to annex approved by county

MOKENA — When the Mokena village board meets next Tuesday night one of the items that may come before it will be the matter of annexation of Arbury Hills.

It was expected that formal notice that the Will County Circuit Court has approved the petition to annex the subdivision along U.S. 45 to Mokena would be in the hands of the board by next week.

It is not expected the board will act immediately. It is likely, according to informed sources, that a petition will be filed asking the village board to call a referendum in which the citizens of Mokena could express themselves on the question — should, or should not Arbury Hills be annexed.

Only residents of the village who are qualified to vote can cast ballots on the annexation question. The people of Arbury Hills would have no voice in the matter, the theory being that since the petition to annex came from that area, and no one appeared at the court hearing to object, the residents of Arbury Hills are in accord with the plan for annexation. The annexation move was spearheaded by the Arbury Hills Civic Association.

The requirements to file a petition seeking a referendum are simple, it was pointed out. A petition asking that the village board call one so the citizens of the village can vote on the question has to be signed by the number of citizens of the Village of Mokena, equivalent to one per cent of the number of votes cast in the last village election. The last village election was in 1971 and the total vote was 279, which means that 28 signatures are required.

Some weeks back a petition asking for a referendum to decide whether the village should purchase a building from Walter Yunker, was filed with the village board that was signed by approximately 50 voters so it had plenty of signatures to spare. The board complied, as mandatory when a proper petition is filed, and set the referendum date for Saturday, Oct. 7.

At the village board meeting Aug. 22, Mayor Tuttle answered a list of questions the Arbury Hills Civic Association has prepared. The Association wanted to know what the residents of Arbury Hills could expect in benefits through annexation to Arbury Hills.

The mayor said they would have police protection (Arbury Hills already lies in the Frankfort Fire Protection District) street lights, and street maintenance.

Arbury Hills residents, who complain of the price they have to pay for water and sewer service, would like to get such service from Mokena because it would be cheaper. Mayor Tuttle told the Association officers present that the fact there is a private utility firm that serves the subdivision is a real stumbling block to annexation.

The mayor said that the village had learned that the price the utility firm would want to turn its sewer and water business over to the village would be quite high. The subdivision has a primary sewage treatment plant and informed sources say it is believed the state will require improvements to the plant.

Municipalities, it was being pointed out, are being required to improve their sewage treatment plants so the privately owned utility firms are expected to be under the guns of the State Environment Protection Agency too. One of the things the Arbury Hills Civic Association wanted to know was whether the village has sufficient equipment and manpower to maintain Arbury Hills streets as well as those of Mokena. Tuttle said that Mokena would have to maintain the streets and take care of snow removal there if Arbury Hills should be annexed. If more equipment and manpower is required then the village would have to provide it, he said.

There are 428 homes in Arbury Hills, according to Edward Levenson, head of the Civic Association, and the population there about 1,000.

Several years ago a group from Arbury Hills went to the Frankfort village board to see if that community was interested in acquiring additional territory. At the time the Frankfort board indicated it was not interested and the matter was dropped.

There has been talk of annexing to Mokena for several years but until now it has only been conversation.

Now action has been taken to decide the question. It is said there are people in both areas who look favorably on the proposal for annexation but there are reported to be many that oppose such a move.

People close to village affairs believe there will be a referendum sought and if such a petition is filed it is sure to find favor with the board. The trustees reportedly are in favor of the people of the community deciding the question.

Mother, father, son murdered in home

MONEE — Steven Hawtree, 56, his wife Judy, 52, and their son Thomas, 17, of Route 1 Monee, Monee Township, were found murdered in their home 1 1/2 miles west of interstate 57 on the Manhattan-Monee blacktop.

The bodies were discovered at 10:30 a.m. by Jenny Verhaeven, mother of Judy Hawtree. Mrs. Verhaeven, 76, lives in a trailer about 75 feet from the main house. Judy Hawtree would have been 53 Monday Sept. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawtree were wearing nightgowns, their bodies were discovered in the basement of their home.

Thomas was employed by The Hauck Service Station near his home in Monee. It was reported he returned home at about 11 a.m. Sept. 3. His naked body was found lying across his mother.

According to police indications show the Hawtree's were cooperating with the intruder or intruders. A cut in Thomas' neck would indicate he was forced down to the basement at knifepoint. Each body was shot several times, according to police.

Mrs. Verhaeven reported to police that she heard a car driving out of the driveway at a high rate of speed at 1:30 or 2 a.m. Their house is set way off the road and the driveway is about a mile long.

Illinois State Police district 5 received a call from Monee Police at 10 a.m. Monday advising them of the call from Mrs. Verhaeven. The State Police called Will County Sheriff's Police who dispatched Deputy Calvin Yody to the scene.

Yody called Lt. James Srygler, the shift commander.

Srygler and investigators Thomas Cavanaugh and Deputy Roy Anderson went to the scene followed by Sheriff Joseph Trizna and Frank Skul.

Police later reported they discovered several items missing from the house. Among the items missing are a portable television, both men's wallets and an unidentified birthday gift to Mrs. Hawtree.

Will County Coroner Willard Blood was quoted earlier as noting some similarity between this and the recent Barrington Hills murders.

Sheriff Trizna said there is absolutely no possibility of a connection between the two. There is "no evidence to indicate any relationship what-so-ever to the Barrington Hills murders."

Blood did place the time of death at or shortly after midnight.

Anyone having any information are requested to call the Sheriff's office. All information will be kept completely confidential.

Jazz Junction

By ART HODES

Then came the rains, August 25...It was the 1st concert of the season. The Oak Lawn Park District, Robert Hope & Co., had contracted me to produce five summer concerts. From jazz to swing — from small to large bands. That night, 15 of us were to gather at Southwest Park but as evening approached the first rain drops fell. It was an evening to remember as musicians were re-directed along with the audience to the J. Clark school in Oak Lawn. Everybody blew like they were trying to make good and the audience got the spirit of the performance. Three encores, lasting 15 minutes, could have run into three more.

From Highland Park Ed Wilkerson trucked his tuba. Harold Brown brought his infectious grin and his drums and Bill Tinkler blew his horn. It was beautiful and good therapy too.

Chicago: jotted down these dates. Happenings at the LONDON HOUSE...Cannonball Adderly's group opened there last night and will be there through the 24th. Blues guitarist T-Bone Walker follows for a 20 night gig. T-Bone will be followed by seven nights of the Junior Mance Trio and Zoot Sims Quartet. Sounds like action at the L.H.

Across town at the Sheraton-Blackstone, Clyde McCoy returns to the bandstand September 25 for a run...Over at the Brown Shoe on Wells Street, cool-jazz promoter Joe Segal has found a home for his attractions. Currently he has the Weather Report group with Joe Zawinul, writer of "Mercy, Mercy," and Wayne Shorter, co-leaders, in for a run.

I'M LISTENING TO: Junior Wells — Delmark-Stereo DS 628. Suitcase Blues Jam with artists Otis Spann, Buddy Guy and Louis Myers

They have captured on this album what a listener could hear any Monday night at Theresa's Blues Bar at 48th and Indiana on Chicago's South Side." Otis Spann has been called the greatest blues pianist of his generation. To his greatness I will attest. I love his playing. He's been here and he's gone all too quickly. But he did leave us his recorded message. This is the blues: the magic language.

COMPOST-Columbia-Stereo C-31176. Five players, (Jack DeJohnette, clavinet, organ, drums, vibes; Jack Gregg, bass; Bob Moses, drums, vocal; Jumma Santos, congo-percussion; Harold Vick, tenor sax, flute); combine to do their "new thing." The spoken-sung thought words, the new language, is here, but there's also a fine beat; good musicianship, and a moving listening experience...BUNNY BERIGAN-RCA Victor LPV 581. His Trumpet & His Orchestra-Vol. 1. It's "turn the clock back" time. Like 1937 when this jazz star did his thing with hardly few others within range. This LP covers, in part, some two years of Bunny's recorded history. A time when jazz players produced the popular sound-version of that day if they wanted a bit of glory and bread too. Berigan tried to do the semi-commercial bit: the big band with the gal singer and the pop sound, but with Bunny Berigan added. For me, the good parts far exceed the other. In fact there are some priceless tracks included in this LP. Its got to belong on your jazz shelf.

HAPPENINGS: BUDDY LEE continues to be a best bet if you dig banjo-pickers. Find him at The Big Banjo in Glen Ellyn...You South-siders check in at The Inn Place for a listen to one of our finest clarinetists, Jerry Fuller. On week-ends lively Dan Williams joins him on trombone; Tony Bellson, drums. On Sunday evenings there's a jam session and here of late the inimitable Barrett Deems has been the "tubs" (drums) feature-a show in himself...North Siders call The Big Horn (Ivanhoe, Ill.). Buzz Snively will clue you in on his current and coming attractions at 566-5958.

Heard about the musician who had his car stolen? Reported it to the police. Three days later he wakes to find it parked in front of his home. Note says "Sorry: had to rush wife to hospital; your car, keys were handy. Here's two tickets to the best show in town." So the cat uses the tickets and while he's out, his house is cleaned out, total. Take Care; see you in two....

ILEC odds favor Kane County

By Michael J. Flynn

WILL COUNTY — In this series of articles on the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission (ILEC) operating through its Region IV, we are showing how county government in Will County is being short changed out of its fair share of $8 million in federal and state funds already spent or due to be spent in the next fiscal year of the ILEC-Region IV.

In this week's article, we will show how the financially hard pressed municipalities in Will County are losing thousands of dollars and how Kane county cities and villages are reaping enormous benefits.

When Governor Richard Ogilvie established the ILEC in 1968, he mandated it to help the counties, cities and villages increase their capacity to fight the ever growing crime rate in their areas and in Illinois. We seriously doubt the governor intended for Kane County to receive nearly $6 million of the $8 million expenditure allocated to ILEC-Region IV, covering Kane, Will, Kendall, Grundy and Kankakee Counties.

Will County, bigger in many respects than Kane County, has had little help from the ILEC-Region IV and even less appears likely in the foreseeable future.

Edward Kovar is the chairman of the Region IV-ILEC Commission. He is also the chairman of the Kane County Law Enforcement Commission. It appears as though Kovar cannot objectively serve two masters. Kane County's share of ILEC funds has been too large for anyone to believe that there has been a fair and equitable allocation of money.

William Wilton, executive director of Region IV-ILEC with headquarters in Aurora, is a paid staff member who does not appear to be executing his duties according to ILEC procedural requirements and the mandate of the governor.

The Will County Law Enforcement commission is comprised of some very able and prominent members of the community: Chairman Dennis Jaskowiak is the chief of the Crest Hill Police Department; Louis R. Bertani is the States Attorney of Will County; Fred Breen is the chief of the Joliet Police Department; Dr. Arthur Bruning is the superintendent of Joliet High Schools; Gerald S. Galowich is a Joliet attorney; Roy Hassert is the chairman of the Will County Board; Judge Michael Orenic; Nicholas Radakovich is the probation officer for Will County; Sheriff Joseph R. Trizna and Joliet Attorneys Thomas Wilson and Thomas Vinson.

These men, all from Joliet representing a small geographic part of Will County, seem to lack the ability to serve the needs of Will County. In five years, they or their predecessors have been able to obtain less than $500,000.00 for the various law enforcement agencies in Will County while their counter parts in Kane County have obtained over $3 million for their county and its municipalities.

Time wasters

Mom, get involved!

How many suburban women are involved in local politics?

Few.
How many suburban women even bother to attend any village board meetings?

Again the answer is few.

Reasons for lack of suburban women's involvement in local government are varied. One predominate reason is a completely obvious nature regarding anything more complex than a new cake recipe. This reason is not always through personal choice but rather a relegated position of least resistance. We are not degrading motherhood. Small children take a great deal of time.

Another reason for lack of women in local politics is, men in local politics.

When a man works eight to ten hours earning a living to support his family and several hours more supporting his village, it leaves little time for babysitting (just in case the 'little woman' wants a night out). This would lead one to believe that village business is more enticing than babysitting. A strong possibility.

Whenever the women of this country have been called upon to substitute for 'male leadership' (World War I) they have risen patriotically to the occasion and waved their little flags just as furiously as any man.

This is 1972 and a married woman's work, providing that the children are of school age, does not take any where near as long as it did for Mom, or, Grandma. Many women today are wasting talent, and intelligence and their responsibility to the community they live in.

Service by women to a community does not have to center around the village government. But, it can.

Village government is constantly looking for people who are available during the day. Sometimes they are fortunate and are able to hire a qualified retiree. Other times they are not so fortunate and end up with a few hours a week donated by an individual who must for economic purposes hold a full time job.

Granted that there are not too many housewives with engineering degrees who are spending seven days a week figuring out how to work the kitchen sink faucet. But there are many responsible women collecting cob webs in their heads who could be assisting on one of the many commissions or committees necessary for village government.

Science, along with historical fact, has proven that women do have brains. However, anything not used to a challenging capacity is a waste. People must all find this challenging capacity for themselves. Whether it is found in the home, doing housework, or in society, serving on charitable committees, or in the business world, it must be found. It must be utilized and it must produce. It's output may be at the very bottom of the world's structure but the world's structure must have a sound beginning as well as a strong finish.

You've got your liberation, women, give or take a few major legal statutes and many male egos perpetrating ill-conceived myths. What are you going to do with it?

Consider a call to your local government coupled with an offer to volunteer your time on a commission or committee. You are a part of this world whether you like it or not. What part you are, depends on you.

Labor Day - Tinley Style

All sorts of entries were in the big parade.

TINLEY PARK — This year's Fall Festival Labor Day parade was one of the largest in the area, according to Parade Chairman Ed Siemsen. Some 91 parade entries gathered for the festivities amid near perfect weather.

Trophy winners in the professional float division were Lake Shore Savings and Loan Association, first; and Star-Tribune Publications, second.

In the amateur float division winners were: Tinley Park Lions Club, first; Tinley Park Jaycees, second; and Tinley Park Sertoma Club, third.

Adult color guard and marching unit winners were: 16th District VFW Post, first; Southwest Suburban Shrine Club, second; and the visiting American Legion Post, third.

The Evergreen Park Rangers took first place in the junior color guard division, with the Chicago Heights Parkettes second and the 16th District VFW Post, third.

The junior marching unit winners were Cub and Boy Scout Troop 355, first; Tinley Park Athletic Club, (Bulldogs) second; and PTA, School District 146, third.

The first place winner in the marching band division was Central Junior High School.

Baton group winners were Twirling Angels, first; Crestwood Chargerettes, second; and Kandy Swirls, third.

In the miscellaneous entry division the first place trophy winner was the Southwest Suburban Shrine Club, first; Sender Realty, second; and Tinley Restaurant, third.

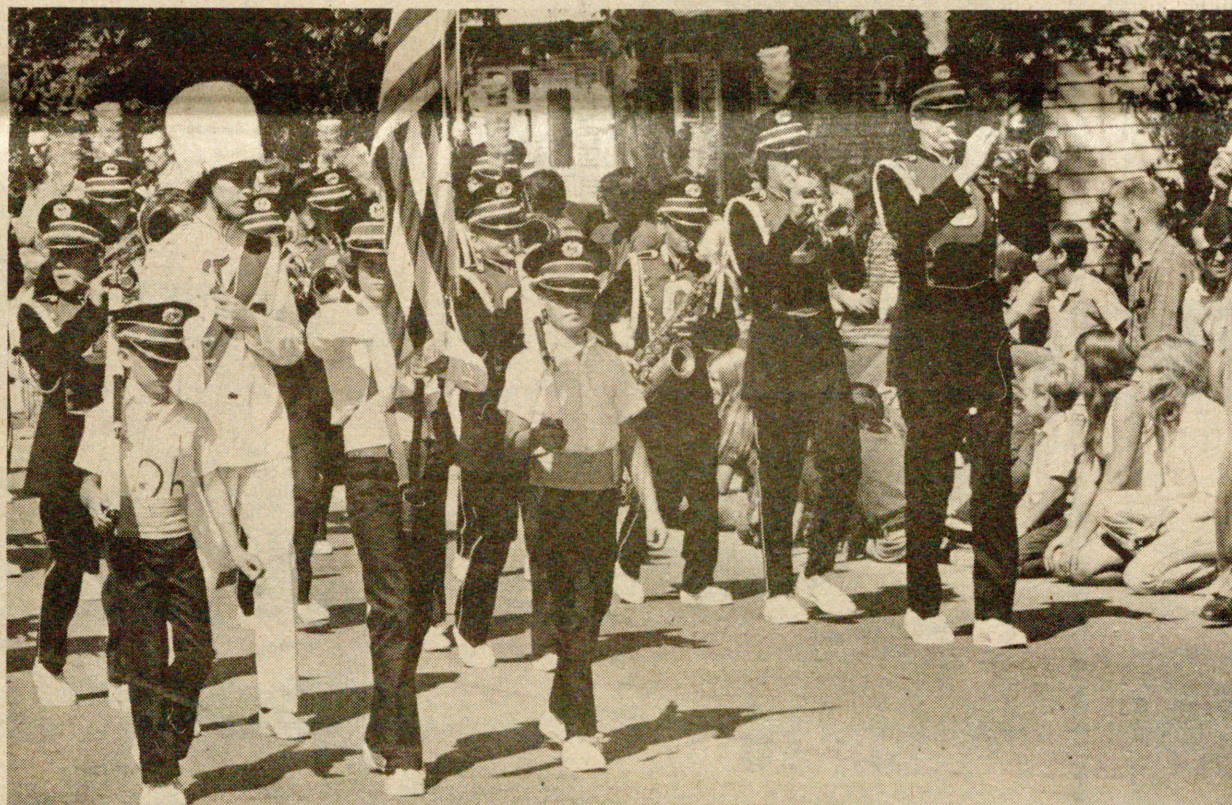

In the miscellaneous entry division the first place trophy winner was the Southwest Suburban Shrine Club, first; Sender Realty, second; and Tinley Restaurant, third.

I and R Beatty Lumber took first place in the antique cars division with Jumbo Restaurant, second and American Legion Post 615, third.

The Mayor's trophy for the best over-all entry was presented to the Evergreen Park Rangers.

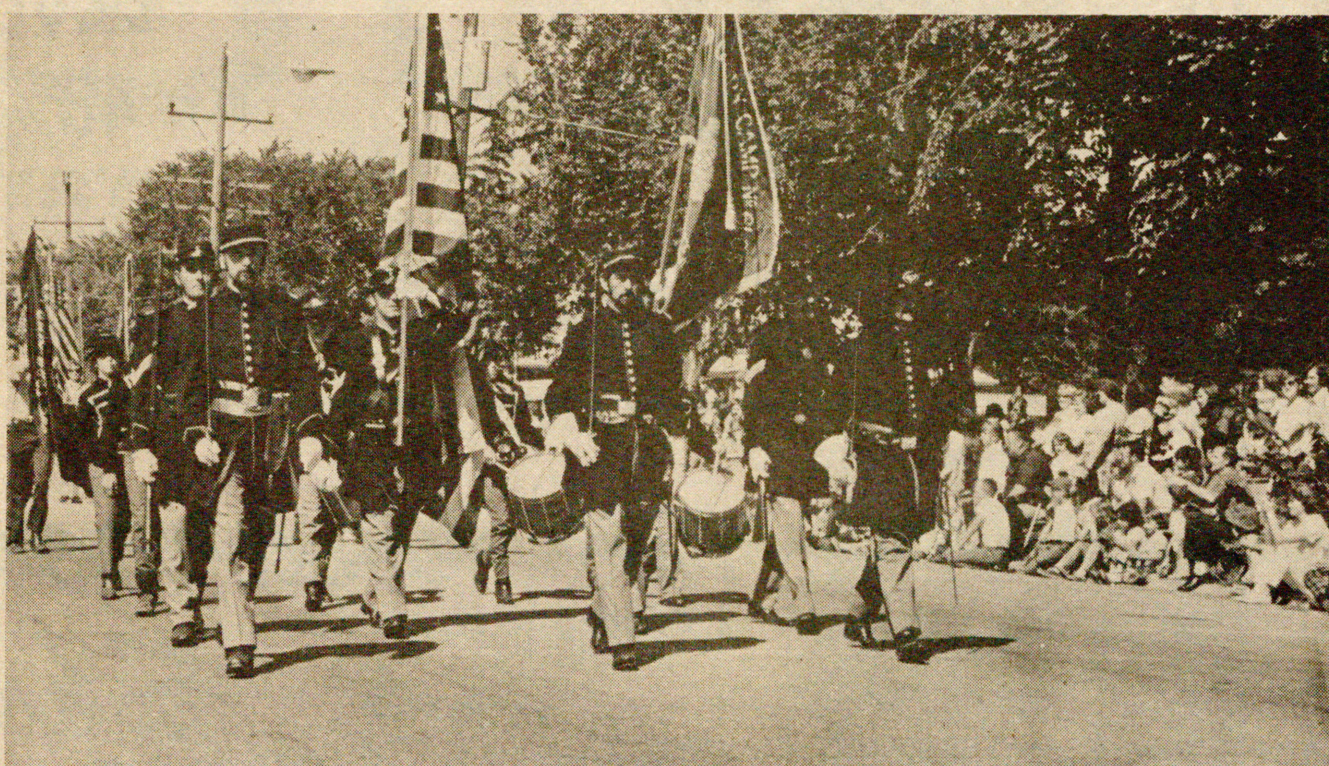

And all ages participated.

Big brass band thundered down the street.

Everybody was there.

Even some old soldiers drifted past.

On second thought

Olympics poses a new tie-up

By Glenn Logan

With the Olympic games on at Munich there are a lot of visitors there from all parts of the world, which should make for a terrific language jam with attendant problems.

If there were a truly universal language — leave love and flowers out of it — it would be simple for travelers to get about and see and do the things they want to. Instead they spend most of their time with a guide book in one hand and a phrase book in the other, endeavoring to find out where they are and what to do to get to the place they want to go.

I see by the papers that the British Olympic Association has come up with still another phrase book. This one is in English and German and is supposed to enable the users to hurdle the language barrier.

The trouble with this, as with all phrase books, is to find a native who has the time to stand there obligingly and read the question you are pointing to in the phrase book. You have looked it up in English and there alongside of it is the same question in German.

You look at him anxiously. Does he understand? Can he read the question? He interprets your looks, nods affirmatively and having let you know he can read starts to hand the book back. You shake your head negatively, push the book back at him and make motions that he is to turn the pages. He does and finds there is a section, in German, devoted to answering the questions in English set alongside of them. Then he has to hunt for the particular question you asked him.

Since one question usually leads to another one can readily see that this could be long drawn out affair. For this reason a person using a phrase book should endeavor to pick out a passerby who is retired, or like himself, on vacation, so he has the leisure to take part in the exercise. There is no use halting someone who may be on his way to keep an engagement, an appointment or to catch a train or plane.

Suppose you ask one of the questions reported to be in the book: "Where is my hotel?"

Unless you know the name of your hotel and can pronounce it so your passerby can understand it, he is really in a bind.

There probably are many hotels in Munich and for him to engage in a guessing contest as which one you call your hotel would put too much of a strain on the phrase book and his patience.

The best thing one could do to get information in Munich would be to leave the phrase book at your hotel after learning the German equivalent for "do you speak English," or "do you speak American" — sprechen sie English, or "sprechen sie American." Thus equipped you sally out into the street and when you need information start stopping passersby like an Inquiring Reporter and put the question. If they say "no" keep on trying until you find one that does.

I remember one time in France of going into a small store to buy a pair of gloves. Only one man was in attendance, apparently the proprietor and he was engaged with a customer. When the sale was concluded and the customer gone the attendant began recording the transaction in the intricate system the French employ in multiplying, adding and subtracting. I moved up to the counter and proceeded to state in deplorable, ungrammatical French what I had come in for.

The storekeeper kept on with his pencil work, paying no attention to me until he had put down the final period. I was starting in my halting try at French again, when he looked up and said:

"Now then, what can I do for you?" in my native tongue, except with a Chicago accent.

It turned out he had lived and worked in Chicago 25 years. After that I always inquired first if they spoke English. If they did we were both happier and if they didn't then we both sweated.

But back to the phrase book for Olympic visitors to Munich. The piece about it I read said that a very important question had been left out: "Where is the bathroom?"

Perhaps it is just as well that question was not included. What a word means to us may mean something else in a foreign language. Suppose you have been dallying in a Munich beer hall, for instance, downing a few flagons of brew and you ask: "Where is the bathroom?" and you get directed to a room where a tub and a shower are the only facilities? Why not see America first? It's easier.

Burial will be in Immanuel Lutheran Cemetery, Hillside. Visitation at Frankfort Community Chapel will be Wednesday from 2 to 5 and 7 to 10 p.m. and at the church from noon until time of service.

Letters to the Editor

Editor:

The Civic Improvement Association wishes to publicly condemn the board of Trustees of Westhaven both for firing Dennis Ward, and the methods they used in doing so.

This was the most blatant act of raw power by the board of trustees to date.

In our estimation, it was Trustee Kellogg who should have been removed from the board. He has been insensitive to the needs of the village, he has shown contempt for progress, and he has consistently held an insidious and snobbish attitude towards anyone who might hold a different view than his own.

Dennis Ward was not even permitted a public hearing.

Is this Nazi Germany?

To view the actions of the board you would think that the Third Reich were in command; worse than that, it was a cheap and cynical way of getting at Mayor Whitaker. For this, all of Westhaven will suffer.

It has long been rumored that Tekton always had four votes they could count on the village board. Today four trustees showed their colors — they are Tekton people all the way.

By their actions, Trustees Kellogg, Bartholmey, Aldrich and Macki have disqualified themselves from ever seeking public office in Westhaven again. It is evident that the Tekton political machine is now in control. They have four votes in their back pockets. The people have none.

If this is what Tekton means when they say that they have an interest in Westhaven, then the people should begin to be wary. We run the risk of becoming a Company Store, just as the mining towns were once owned, lock, stock, and barrel, by the mining companies.

How long will it be before Westhaven is re-named Tekton-Haven? They have four votes they can count on to accomplish this. And they are kidding no one.

We are certain that Tekton and Trustee Kellogg, who must now be known as Tekton's uncle-tom, or Tekton's boy, have every intention of hiring another McReynolds, who will let Tekton make every mistake they want and turn his back.

The people have been shafted, and there is no other way to describe it. Mayor Whitaker does not suffer. He does not own a Tekton home. We do. We will pay the price.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER BY JIM HIRSCH

It seems only a few weeks ago, instead of months, most of us were asking others, "What are you going to do on your vacation?" Vacation time was just around the corner. Now the corner has been turned — for most of us.

We hope those of you who vacationed in resort areas... beaches... golf courses... boating, fishing... inns, hotels and motels... camps... family reunions... in different cities and states had a wonderful time, filled with fun and unforgettable pleasant experiences. And we hope you did not have to unpack the first aid kit! Incidentally, we know (and envied) some who vacationed in the classic exercise of sun bathing right here at home. And now, the summer vacation season is over.

In the Fall, Winter and Spring seasons ahead, we hope you continue to read these thoughts every week. We hope you find a thought now and then to cause you to ask, "What does this mean to me?" We hope you can then ask, "How can I adapt the thought to myself?" We hope what you read here can, in some small way at least, relieve you from worry; give you encouragement, hope and confidence — if and when needed. We hope too that many of you will continue to express your thoughts, pro and con, to us in person, phone or letter. Your response and your thoughts give us encouragement, hope and confidence too...

Frankfort's streets were filled to capacity . . .

But everybody enjoyed themselves.

FRANKFORT — Attendance at the annual Fall Festival was "extremely gratifying to those who labored to make it a success," and success it was, they all agreed.

Sunday's crowd was the largest, according to Police Chief T.A. Massey, who estimated that at least 25,000 were on hand to view the parade. Cars were parked into every available inch of space in the village.

The parade was colorful and more than an hour in passing. Winners among the more than 70 units in the parade were picked by the judges as follows:

Indianapolis Shriners Mini-Mystics won the mayor's trophy as "best of parade".

Commercial floats: 1. Dawn Plumbing; 2. Brummer Seal; 3. Braun Sales.

Civic floats: 1. Prestwick Homeowners Association; 2. Frankfort Lions Club; 3. Frankfort Fireman's Women's Auxiliary.

Marching units: 1. Chicago Heights Parkettes; 2. Park Forest Color Guard; 3. Prestwick Girl Scouts 317.

Baton twirlers: 1. Blue Island Twirling Jewels; 2. Evons' Royal Lancers.

Horse drawn: 1. Cooper-Show; 2. Rittenhouse-Embree; 3. Dee & Ed's Grocery.

Bands: 1. Lincoln-Way; 2. Frankfort Grade School.

Antique cars; oldest and best appearing, Connecticut Hills Homeowners Association.

Best appearing fire department: Chicago Heights.

Could be found almost anywhere.

Arts, crafts and hobbies decorated the streets.

The Church School superintendent, Mrs. Gloria Dean, and chairman of Christian Education, Mrs. David Downs, have enlisted the following teachers for the 1972-73 year:

Three year olds, Mrs. Ralph Wiley; four and five year olds, Mrs. Gloria Dean; first and second grade, Mrs. Roger Corp; third and fourth grade, Mrs. James Lausted; fifth and sixth grade, Mrs. P.L. Richards; seventh and eighth grade, Mrs. Steve Pranka, high school, David Downs, Steve Pranka and Roger Ross.

Mrs. Richard Bishop will be helping with special craft projects throughout the year.

The adult class will be led by a task force of Mrs. Eugene Goham, James Lausted and Harold Slocum, with the help of several other adults on special events throughout the year. A crib room will be provided for infants during both services.

The nursery class through the high school class will be meeting in McGlashen Hall each Sunday morning for opening worship led by Mrs. Roger and the Rev. Eugene Bonham. Each class will then dismiss to their individual classrooms.

All present church families and those with out a church home are invited to come to the beginning session. All those involved with the planning are looking forward to an exciting year.

The PTA will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 12, at the Frankfort School. The program will mainly consist of introducing the administration and then a discussion period. The business meeting is in charge of Mrs. Ronald Ball who is president for the new school year. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

The Women's Circle of St. John's United Church of Christ of North Peotone meets at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 7, in the church. The program will be on "Foster Care."

Katherine Heisner and Mrs. Harry Miller returned home by plane this week after a weeks vacation in Fernandina, Fla., where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heisner.

Nine Girl Scouts from Frankfort recently attended Camp Pokanoka, near Ottawa, for two weeks. Those attending were Lori Lorenz, Nancy Lorenz, Kim Stopka, Martha Kohlagen, Nancy Pecor, Diane Pecor, Sandy Johnson, Brenda Reed and Roxanda Reed.

Lori Lorenz and Sandy Johnson lived in a primitive camp and had a "great time."

Twenty-three boys from Boy Scout Troop 270 attended a camp at Morris for a week. Scoutmaster Lee Gericke was with them during the day and Don Lorenz assisted each night.

Four boys from Boy Scout Troop 270 recently boarded a train at Aurora and arrived at Denver, Colo. on their way to the Philmont Scout ranch, Camarron, N.M. where they stayed for two weekss. The boys were Dean Lorenz, Shane Gericke, Dennis Holme and Robert McCarter. While there they climbed three mountains, one was Tooth-Of-Time which was 9,000 feet. They traveled 85 miles in mountains carrying 50lb. packs. They were guests at the Air Force Academy, Denver, Colo. and also at Warte Phillips mansion. The 137,000 acres of land for Philmont rance was donated by Warte Phillips.

Frankfort Square

FRANKFORT SQUARE — The nominating committee of the newly-organized Frankfort Square Homeowner's Association is scheduled to meet tonight, Sept. 6, at 8 o'clock at 321 Greenfield Lane.

Purpose of the meeting will be to give preliminary consideration to qualifications of persons suggested by area residents to fill the offices of president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and two trustees. Ultimately, this will lead to a formal slate of candidates to be presented to the members of the association prior to the election date.

Nominating committee members are H. Dee Brown, Andy Houston, Mrs. Floyd Anderson, Harry Jones and Mrs. D.V. Kowalski.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Reilly recently welcomed overnight guests to their home at 248 Laurel Drive. Their visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Ardis Behrendt of Ft. Wayne drove with their two preschool-age daughters to spend part of the Labor Day weekend with the Reillys. The young families became closely acquainted when both were stationed at Whiteman Air Force Base near Kansas City in February, 1971.

Training will begin this week for future Frankfort Square Scout leaders at the home of Mrs. Lee Gericke in Lincoln Estates. Mrs. Gericke, a scouting veteran with eight years' experience is the neighborhood chairman of Trikena, which includes scout troops from Frankfort Square, as well as Mokena, Arbury Hills, Frankfort, Prestwick and Lincoln Estates. Three troops have been formed here under Mrs. Gericke's supervision.

The first is the Cadette troop, with Mrs. Albert Kamm, leader, and Mrs. Joseph Albright, co-leader. Girls in seventh, eighth and ninth grades are eligible for membership; those interested should contact Mrs. Kamm at 469-2917. Meetings will be held Wednesday evenings at St. Anthony Church.

Junior Troop members, girls in fourth, fifth and sixth grades will be supervised by Mrs. James Maustis, with assistance from Mrs. Vincent Sola. Openings for membership are still available by calling Mrs. Maustis at 469-3318.

Mrs. Harry Jones and Mrs. Frank Warden will assume responsibilities as leader and co-leader, respectively, of the Brownies. This group will include second and third grade girls. Mrs. Gericke asks that she be contacted at 469-5311 for further information.

No plans have been made to form either Cub Scout (boys ages 8 through 10) or Boy Scout (ages 11 through 17) troops. Five responsible men are needed as volunteers before these groups can be begun here.

The Rainbow Council in Morris, Illinois (815) 942-4450 will be happy to provide other necessary information.

Miss Cassie Summer celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday, September 2, with 17 neighborhood children invited to join the festivities. The birthday girl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Porter of 319 Holly Lane. Happy Birthday, Cassie (somewhat belatedly!)

Mrs. Phillip Ford recently returned from a week-long vacation trip to Gainesville, Fla. Leaving her husband and five year old son, Scott to man the fort at 327 Holly Lane, Sher accompanied a close friend, Mrs. Mark Coleman of Park Forest, to the south where Mrs. Coleman joined her veterinarian-husband. Mrs. Ford reports that the trip was principally to help the Colemans relocate near the University of Florida, where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. P.M. (Mike) Hanley yesterday returned from a fourday stay in Pullman, Mich., where they inspected property acquired in 1924 by James Hanley, Mike's father. Mrs. Hanley ruefully disclosed that careful scrutiny of the acreage failed to reveal her much-dreamed-of diamond mine. She also is certain that any attempt to drill for oil would be equally futile. But what did they find?? Lots of lush, green forest!

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fuesting of 318 Holly Lane returned Saturday with their sons Todd and David after a nine-day vacation to Lake Dewey, Mich.

Block captains for the council of Catholic Women at St. Anthony Church have been named by the Frankfort Square area representative, Mrs. Robert Brasch. According to Mrs. Brasch, the list is incomplete at this time, in that it does not include block captains for the quadminium area.

However, those who have been selected thus far are Mrs. Gerald O'Shea, 335 Greenfield Lane; Mrs. Walter Paszyna, 324 Jonquil Lane; Mrs. James Latowski, 350 Kingston Drive; and Mrs. Richard Haave, 306 Holly Lane.

Block captains will work with Mrs. Brasch to keep area parishioners informed of St. Anthony Church activities, such as bake sales.

The first of several new security measures will be ready for residents of Prestwick in the very near future. The Board of Directors of the Homeowners Association has approved the development and purchase of vehicle stickers of a special design specifically for homeowners. The stickers will be of a color that is reflective in low density light so that they can easily be identified. They will be dated and signed identifying the area and they will be provided to each homeowner as part of their membership fee for two cars. Decals needed beyond two cars can be purchased at cost.

Any homeowner may have as many decals as they wish as long as they are mailed to a Prestwick address. Details of the make and license number of the car as well as the name, address and telephone number of the owner will be placed on cards which will be supplied to the Will County Sheriffs Police radio room and the Illinois State Police.

The big calcutta season has decended upon our area once again. The kick-off will be the Pre-Calcutta Party scheduled for Sept. 16. Cost is $6.50 per person, guests are welcome and drink tickets will cost $1. This will be a great time to meet your partners in the calcutta.

The Club Championship was won last Monday by Jerry Anderson, Oak Lawn who was up with one to go in the 36 hole match play championship against Bob Kerr, Olympia Fields.

The three-day point tournament played on the holiday weekend was won by Howard Pampel, Olympia Fields.

The Best Ball Twosome played Saturday was won by Milton Rumsey, Prestwick Drive, and Ray Duesing, Dolton, with a net 63.

The proposed location for this tennis program will be the new Indoor Tennis Club of the Homewood-Flossmoor Park District at 2920 W. 183rd St. in Homewood. Anyone interested should contact Bill Flynn immediately at 815-469-5617.

The First Nighters will have the September meeting of the group at the home of Mrs. Bessie Hoffman, Redwood Street tomorrow evening, Sept. 7, beginning at 8 p.m.

The Arbury Hills Scout Troop No. 10, (no longer termed Boy Scouts I'm told,) are now holding their meetings back at the school on Thursday, 7 p.m. — 9 p.m. Boys in the school district who have completed fifth grade or are eleven years old and not yet eighteen are eligible to join. It is not necessary to have been a Cub Scout previously. Always room for more. It is an active troop and there is still room for more willing boys.

The annual baseball banquet for the Arbury Hills Baseball League will be held at Dorand Hall, 15732 Halsted St., Harvey, beginning at 6 p.m. All tickets not yet paid for must be paid in advance of the date to Mrs. Sue Thelen at 479-9129.

The Baseball League will have its monthly meeting at the school on Magnolia Street and Beechnut Drive, Tuesday, Sept. 12, beginning at 8 p.m. All interested people are invited to attend. Now is the time to start planning for next year's season and the winter fund raising activities.

The Burros Football teams, after having two weeks of home play, are to travel this coming week end. On Sunday, Sept. 10, there will be four games being played at Normal, Ill. with the first game starting at 1 p.m. For directions please contact any of the team coaches. Everybody is welcome!

The Summit Hill Parent-Teacher Organization will have its first meeting of the new school year at the school next Thursday, Sept. 14, 8 p.m. As has been customary in past years there will be the introduction of the staff to those present. This is a fine opportunity for the newcomers to the area to meet other parents.

The Arbury Hills Civic Association will have a general membership meeting at the school on Wednesday, Sept. 20 beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The Arbury Hills Civic Association picnic recently was notably a success. The crowd was good sized, the day was rainless, and the people were in a mood for fun. Good combination, wouldn't you say?

"Hello. Yes, this is Jean Wille.
"President Nixon?
"Hi, Dick.
"Oh, I'm fine. How's Pat?
"That's nice.
"You what?
"Me?
"You want me to represent the USA in the 1976 Olympics?
"Oh, come on, Dick, I can't do any of those things.
"I know they had 21 categories this year, but I can't compete in any of them.
"A new category?
"You would ask them to set up a new category just for me?
"Gee, Dick, that's nice of you.
"No, I don't think that would be a good category for me. I've never been too close to a mountain.
"No, I've always been a little afraid of snakes.
"Play a what?
"No, Dick, I don't think I could master that.
"I know I've got four years, but I don't even like zithers.
"Do something new with what?
"Galbanum?
"I've never even heard of it.
"I don't know, Dick. I guess I don't have any speciality.

"I am thinking.
"I know. When I was a kid I was the fastest corn shock-slider in the neighborhood. With a little practice—
"Corn shock slider.
"Corn.
"Come on, Dick. You know what corn is.
"Well, when the farmers are through using the stalks they pile them up and tie them together. It kind of looks like an Indian teepee only it's made out of corn stalks.
"We used to climb up to the top and slide down and out the side of the shock.
"Well, no, but it was fun then.
"Sure, I could practice this fall. Maybe I could buy a shock from a farmer and set it up in the basement.
"This is going to be great, Dick.
"I just know I can bring home a medal.
"What should we call the new category?
"How about shock absorber?
"Okay, Dick. But, don't tell the newspapers. We don't want any other country practicing.
"By the way, Dick, who will pay my expenses to a foreign country?
"Dick?
"Dick?

The southeast corner of 159th St. and Oak Park Ave., had a small lunchroom, bar and a couple of gas pumps in 1942. The building will soon be demolished for parking area for a new restaurant.

The 'change' of a lifetime

By Jean Wille

"Bill Rick from Beatty Lumber Co. though I was kidding when I said I wanted to build a motel at 159th St. and Oak Park Ave.," said John Fahrenholz, 17240 S. 69th Ave., Tinley Park.
"But, we went ahead and built it anyway. It was a good business," John added. He was referring to the building known as Jardine's Restaurant.
In 1939, Fahrenholz built a lunchroom and bar and installed a couple of Texaco gas pumps on the corner of his 120 acre farm just north of Tinley. He also built two double cabins with showers. The cabins rented for $3 per night and a cot cost $.75 extra.

Another ten acres, fronting 159th St., was later subdivided and sold for homes.
Business on the new corner venture was good. Gasoline sold for $.45½ a gallon and ethyl, $.17 Hot beef sandwiches were $.25, hamburgers, $.10 (with a pickle) and a full course Sunday dinner, $1.25. Beer was $.10 a glass and coffee was free. Pies were homemade and extra help was available from the Fahrenholz' two daughters, Laura Siemen and Elaine DeValk.

Other Tinley Parkers later involved in the operation of the lunchroom were Louise Goessel, who helped with the cooking, and the late Walter, and Betty Eichelburg.

"Tinley only had about 1100 people in those days and we knew everyone," commented John.
"We never had any trouble running the motel," Lillie mentioned.
"Most of our trade during the war years was wives and children on their way to visit husbands and fathers at Fort Sheridan, Chicago. Some of them had saved their money all year to make the trip.
"We liked the motel business but some people sure did some funny things," Lillie said laughingly.
"I remember a couple who brought an alligator into their motel room and let it sleep in the water in the shower stall overnight. They didn't tell us they had it with them and when I saw that thing tied to a tree in the morning I didn't know what to do."

In 1942 the Fahrenholz family moved into the two bedroom section on the east side of the lunchroom and added two more cabins.
In 1944, the property was sold to John Paulin and 1945 saw the beginning of the Jardine Corporation which now consists of Bill, ("Pappy") his son, Ralph, son-in-law, Bob Kent, grandson, Tom Jardine and Bob's son-in-law, Carl Brackett.
The building housing the smorgasbord, or, "the new one," was built about 1950. People in the community will probably soon be referring to this building as the "old one." The original lunchroom is scheduled for demolition to allow for parking for a new restaurant fronting Oak Park Ave. The proposed building, 50x75 feet, will contain a diningroom, lounge, and a private dining room with a capacity for about 40 people.

OAK FOREST — Donald and Margaret Snedden, 5509 W. Grange Ave. have just returned home after a vacation visit to Horseshoe Bend, Arkansas. The Sneddens were guests of the Horseshoe Club and during the visit accepted an invitation to become club members.

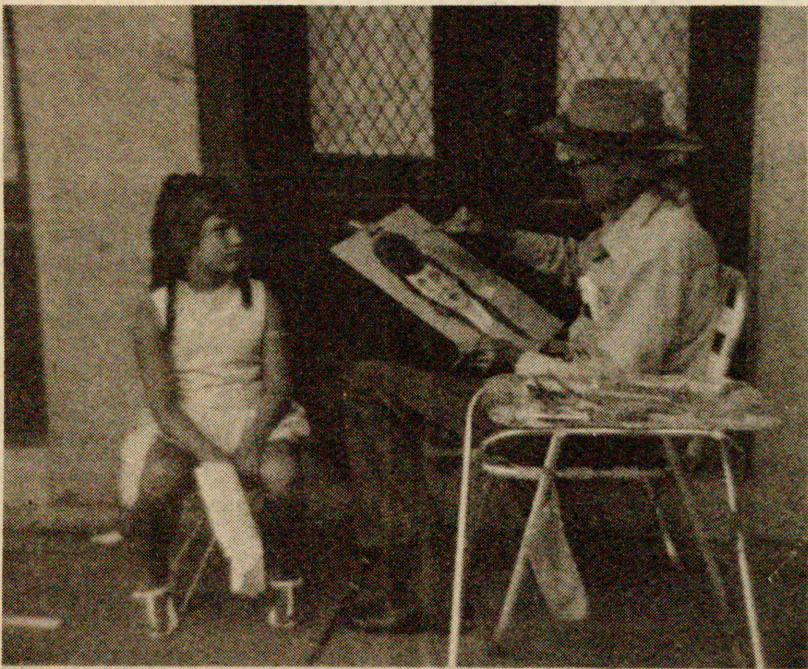

had to resign before entering the year's activities.

Mrs. Henrietta Grigus, elected to the presidency of the 450-woman Catholic Council of Women, resigned the post to move to northern Wisconsin Aug. 24 with her family.

Former president Mrs. Kay Wavering agreed to assume another term when vice-president Mrs. Adair Ramage declined the post because of the pressure of personal business. After consultation with the American Council of Catholic Women for a procedure to obtain a new president volunteers were sought by the Council Executive Board.
"I said 'no' at first," said Mrs. Wavering, "and then I got to thinking about it. This is Father Coyle's last year as pastor, you know." Mrs. Kay will be installed in office at the first meeting of the council on Tuesday, Sept. 12.

Serving with her are officers Mrs. Adair Ramage, vice-president; Mrs. Loretta Steffen, treasurer; Mrs. Sally Kelly, Mrs. Karen Klein and Mrs. Mary Lee Rausch, corresponding secretaries; Mrs. Lou Graben, recording secretary.
In addition to its function of offering women of the parish a spiritual and social focus the council turned over a $10,000 check at its June luncheon for reduction of the parish debt.

Some of the social events planned for the coming year include the annual Drury Lane Theatre Party and the St. Patrick Day Dinner. Tentative plans are being made for a joint party with the men's Holy Name Society in early October.

William L. Ballenger, an artist who frequents Jackson Square in the French Quarter of New Orleans, uses his talents with pastels to catch a good likeness of Tammy O'Shea, Tinley Park, a contestant in the world's "Our Little Miss" contest. The winner of the contest was Florida's "Little Miss".

La Leche announces series

OAK FOREST — The Midlothian Area Group of LaLeche League will hold its next meeting, beginning a new series of four monthly meetings at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 12, at the home of Mrs. Larry Charleston, 4404 W. Richard, Oak Forest.

A non-sectarian, non-profit organization, the League's purpose is to help encourage "good mothering through breastfeeding." The name, La Leche, is Spanish and means "the milk."

La Leche League began in a Chicago suburb over 15 years ago when a mother who successfully nursed her baby, helped another who wanted to breast-feed.

The group meets the second Tuesday of each month and all women who are interested in nursing their babies have been invited to attend. Women need not be pregnant or even have a family to attend.

The series of four meetings will informally discuss different phases of breastfeeding. The topic for September's meeting is "Advantages of Breastfeeding to Mother and Baby."

Further information may be obtained by calling group leaders, Mrs. Robert Hosler, 389-3729 or Mrs. Thomas Przekwas, 687-5933.

Art-a-facts

Many people sing that old song, "I don't know anything about Art."

What has always been a pleasant surprise over the years, is that people who say this most often select or choose the very best of whatever art is before their eyes. It's a bit uncanny. Oddly enough, people are often unaware of their own sensibilities and which indicate a kind of "sixth sense." As far as I have been able to puzzle out this phenomena, I would say that people are very modest about their own capabilities. Many choose well. When I say this, one can assume that I also mean rather sophisticated and intelligent works of art. If it's in the work, people won't miss it.

Most art historians are against such reckless notions that we can possibly trust our intuitive judgment about evaluating any work of art, preferring a concrete matrix. The late Erwin Panofsky, an esteemed figure among art historians, who trained many others in the field at Princeton University, said outright that it was a most dangerous thing, this business of trusting to intuition. However, it is possible that pictorial elements can be analyzed and enjoyed simultaneously.

About a 100 or so years ago, art historians first began to perceive the psychological elements in painting. It took the work of Vincent Van Gogh to turn the tide with his powerful and expressive imagery.

In painting there are inexplicable aesthetics in the paint quality itself which actually have no word symbols to describe it, this curious is a "sixth sense." We know that these special qualities in art are often the very thing to which observers respond. That's because the artist had a certain sense about what he was creating.

Where does this leave the viewer? He can still sense and feel the art he sees. It has a way of sharpening a more appreciative eye for one's total environment. I suggest that people make visits to the museums around the country whenever they travel, especially the Chicago Art Institute in our own backyard to see just what the masters in art have been up to these past centuries in different parts of the world. One might begin by visiting a museum and just thinking of time and place.

On another visit look for variations in line. The way eyes are painted or the color red and costumes etc. Each visit will become a new and different experience.

When one begins to look at art in different places, one has a stronger sense about the history of the kind of work in front of him. This isn't easy, but it is one of life's great pleasures.

Since many people already have developed a certain modicum of sensorial perceptions, it's a matter of just looking and appreciating the fact that it's you yourself having these sensibilities while the work of art remains objective — no matter what any of us have to say about it.

If you patronize real talent, the value of the artist's work will increase as the artist's reputation grows. If you don't trust your judgment, don't buy expensive work without advice from an expert.

One can afford minor mistakes and still have some fun with it. Collectors who invest thousands of dollars get loads of advice.

Life is a continued growth process and our sensing and feeling with a discriminating eye also needs to grow over the years. The more one looks, the more one sees. Art isn't somewhere out there outside of ourselves entirely. Perhaps physically the art object simply exists. But, it's the universal qualities within all of us that make us aware of extended visions different from our own. Thus we develop a new way to look at the world. A wonderful example of this is William Turner (1775-1851) who discovered the fog for London. It is very powerful and poetic work in paint. He showed people how to look at the fog.

Now the art world is in a state of flux. The "sixth sense" is considered very old fashioned in some artistic circles. It is amusing though, that while all of this transpired, sensitivity groups have become "in" while individuals with sensibilities in Art have become "out."

In a nutshell, the pendulum swings and not all that much is new in art. I do advise people to have some fun saying that they don't know anything about art. You'd be surprised at what you might hear. Who knows? One might, inadvertently get a bargain that may not be a mistake. Of course, advice will vary. A copy of a photograph done in real honest-to-goodness genuine oils has never exactly staggered the imagination so, be willing to trust your own judgement — at least sometimes.

Astrological engagements

SAGITTA SAYS, if your engagement extends through earthy Virgo, August 24 to September 23, you'll feel Mercurial infiltrations and a note of practicality in your plans. Sounds conflicting, but Virgo's influences do tend to bring splendid activity of mind and body at the same time it brings frugality and cautiousness.

If you feel inclined to view your coming wedding somewhat seriously and even more soberly than before, you can put it down to the sign of the Virgin. Use it for what it's worth while making your momentous plans. But remember that analysis of situations must give way to sheer joy from time to time.

Eade wants that 1st win

ORLAND PARK — "If we can win our first game I think we will be all right and it would mean a lot to the kids and the future of the team," said new Carl Sandburg High School head coach Cliff Eade.

Eade will be in his first year as top man for the Eagles of the Southwest Suburban Conference. Veteran Coach Joe Devine stepped down after 18 years as head coach of the Orland Park school.

Sandburg is coming off of a somewhat disappointing 5-3 season and hopes to improve on that mark this year. "The team is not deep but the players we have are good ones and if no serious injury problems hit us we should be good," said Eade. "Also, I'm very, very pleased with our offense unit, with ball control being the key, I believe our best defense this year will be our offense and their ability to control the ball."

Eade said he has two or almost three full backfields he will go with this fall and will have several of two-way players. Even though his passing attack is improving Eade believes the Eagles will either live or die with the running game this season.

Seniors Wally Atkinson and Bill Nelson are battling for the quarterback job with junior Larry Lindemann also pushing for the top job.

"Atkinson is the smartest and Nelson the best runner but Lindemann just might have the best passing arm of the three. I intend to rotate in the fall right as of now," said Eade.

John Nieburt, Bob Nagel, Mike McNicolas, Bill Hammertree and Tom Slinger are all battling for backfield berths.

The linemen are led by returning lettermen Dave Kettman and Mark Eirekson with many others in the big battle for starting honors.

The Eagles will not have an easy game in the upcoming season, believes Eade, but will depend on the running strength of big backs and energy of a new coach to post a successful year.

Sandburg sports-fest

ORLAND PARK — The annual fall sports jamboree will be held Saturday, Sept. 9, at Carl Sandburg High School, beginning at 6 p.m.

The cross country and three football squads will be introduced, including the Freshman, sophomore and varsity. Following the introductions the cross country team will have an intra-squad meet.

There will be two intra-squad football scrimmages with sophomores going against sophomores and the varsity players divided into two teams.

The event, which is being sponsored by the Sandburg Boosters, will conclude with a parking lot dance in the west lot from 8 to 10:30. The "Flight" combo will furnish music.

William Nelson, president of the Boosters Club, reports that refreshments will be served and a 12-inch black and white television will be given away. The Boosters also will be selling the club's new booster jackets.

The Boosters will conduct their first meeting of the new school year Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the school. Those attending are asked to enter the school off the west parking lot.

Coeds gain full status

NEW LENOX — Lincoln-Way High School coeds now have full status as athletes. The high school board has given its approval for the girls to compete in tennis, bowling and track at conference and state levels.

This action was taken following action of the Illinois High School Association which regulates athletic competition secondary schools.

This gives the gals a chance to vie for state honors, same as the boys.

There are quite a number of girls at Lincoln-Way who have been participating in track on their own but under the old rules couldn't compete with other schools, nor was there any place for them in the state finals.

Now they can compete and that girls do well in sports has been clearly demonstrated for years in the Olympics.

With the gate thus opened, some believe it will not be long before the feds are permitted to compete in other sports.

Lincoln Way girls now have bowling teams. The tennis and track squads will come later.

It was not known last weekend whether a schedule for competitive bowling against other schools can be made up at this time as such an undertaking would take time. It is possible, it was said, that one could be drawn up for the mid-year term.

Splits take top slot

OAK FOREST — The Banana Splits, winners of the Oak Forest Park District Girls Softball League, faced the best of the bunch Thursday night for the final game of the season.

The All Stars with five girls each from the Pink Panthers, Road Runners and Shady Ladies came out on top with a final score of 16 to 7.

The All Stars played a well-rounded game, with good batting and some excellent defensive play. The Banana Splits are to be congratulated as they played well against the cream of the crop. Following the game the Banana Splits were presented with individual trophies and the All Stars received season ending certificates.

The Trophies were awarded for the Splits first place finish in regular season play. The Coaches are looking forward to Spring training as the Program was very well received with much of the thanks going to Danny Clark who officiated at all the games.

Flag football sign-up

OAK FOREST — The Park District is now accepting registrations for the fall flag football program from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays at the district office, 15423 S. Cicero Ave.

The program will begin as soon as sufficient registration is received. The cost of the program is $3 per boy and the Park District will furnish the flag sets, field, balls and locations for practice.

Any parent, family or citizen interested in coaching a team have been asked to contact the Park District office.

Eight players will constitute a starting team and each team should have 13-15 boys. Games will be played during week nights. Ages for participation are 8 to 12 years as of Oct. 15.

The Park District still has a few openings for women in advanced beginners' tennis class to be taught at Covent Park during September and October. The classes will be instructed by Mrs. Mary Williams from 9-10 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

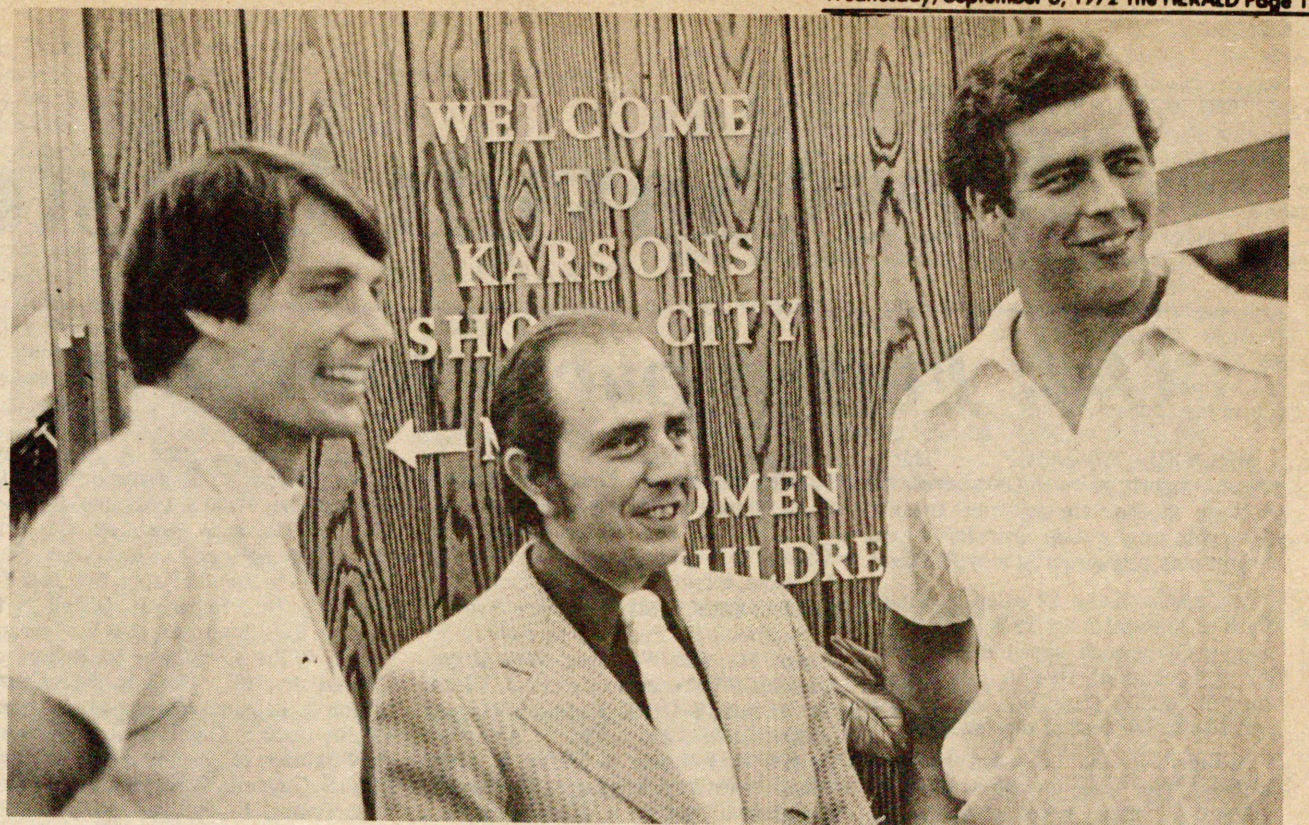

Eagle footmen

ORLAND PARK — The cross country team from Carl Sandburg high school is very hopeful of having another fine season under coach John Wilson.

The boys who have been looking good so far for the varsity are Brian Dotstoh, Tom Page, John Smith, Kevin Murwin and Steve Paschall. Roy Carey, Tim Close and Bob Shem, all sophomores, have a good chance to run varsity this year also.

This will be a young team and a rebuilding year, says Coach Wilson, who hopes that his team can win at least one-half its meets.

The Eagles' first meet came early this year starting at Richards High School Tuesday, Sept. 5. Results were not available at time of publication.

The two appeared at the Shoe City Thursday.

OF opens 2nd x-country season

OAK FOREST — The Oak Forest High School cross country team opens its second season this month. Coach George McClarence's juniors and sophomores will have an ambitious schedule.

The high school is only three years old and doesn't have a senior class yet, but McClarence's team will run a full schedule against varsity teams.

Oak Forest will get its first test Saturday, Sept. 9, in the District 228 meet at Bremen High School at 10 a.m. when the Bengals will run against Bremen, Hillcrest and Tinley Park.

Last year running against frosh-soph units McClarence and his young Bengals turned in a respectable 3-3 record for first time competitors.

Both McClarence and his team would like to finish high in the 228 meet to get a good start to the season.

McClarence had 17 boys turn out for the early practice sessions and will carry that number into the season. Unlike other coaches he doesn't have to worry about graduation losses and so has 10 boys who lettered last year in frosh-soph competition running varsity competition as juniors.

Heading the returning letter brigade is Gary Stapanato the teams top runner last year. Another runner who finished among the leaders last year is Al Shepard.

Roger Krause, who played football last year is making his cross country debut. Krause has been running all summer, and according to McClarence was in the best shape of any of his runners in early drills.

Junior Jeffery and Jim Pauly are two other runners expected to do well this season.

Cross country

TINLEY PARK — Tinley Park will open its cross country season Sept. 9, at 10 a.m. in the District 228 meet against Oak Forest, Hillcrest and Bremen. The meet is hosted by Bremen.

Coach Bill Farley has one returning letterman, senior Paul Heed, back from a team that had a 1-10 record in 1971.

Dave Krause a distance man in track is making his first try at the sports as is Bruce Bouton, another track man. Paul Johnson is a junior, and junior Gary Ganbrel is making his cross country debut. Farley has a trio of sophomores that he may move up to run on the varsity depending on how the team shapes up. The Sophs are: Dave Zoberis, Tom Grossheider, and Terry Leonard.

Change dance location

OAK FOREST — Due to construction of Oak Forest High School, the American Days teen dance location has been changed to Laramie School, 14950 S. Laramie Ave. The dance is scheduled at 8 p.m. Friday, Sept. 15. Music will be provided by the Greystone Fox.

OF bombs Bombers

OAK FOREST — The Oak Forest Park District team defeated the B-I Bombers 16 to 11 in the playoff for the Oak Forest Park District Men's Softball League championship.

The Park District team was led in hitting by Stephen Moss with a perfect four for four including a home run and Jerry Greczek with three for four. Outstanding defense was turned in by Dave Moss, Dave Berna and F. L. Kirby.

In the men's softball season ending tournament, again the Park District Team was victorious. The Wark Hawks defeated the Flying Falcons 13-8 and earned the right to face the Park team in the semi-final game.

The Road Runners, third in team standings in the league, defeated the second place Bombers by a score of 12-7.

Traficanto and Richardson were the leading hitters for the Road Runners who played a fine defensive game. The Bombers were waylaid by numerous errors and poor hitting.

The Park District team battled its way to the finals in a victory over the Wark Hawks, with slugger Jerry Greczek batting three for four including a home run and Weldon Terrell, Dave Moss, Ed Beson, F. L. Kirby, Rick Potter and Bob Carlson with two hits each. The Park Team fought back from a 1st inning eight-run deficit to take the lead in the fifth inning 12-11 and won with a final score of 16-11.

In the tournament finals the Park team scored a decisive 12-6 victory over the Road Runners, putting it all together with great defense and the solid hitting of Jerry Greczek, Steve Moss, Joe Werner, Dave Moss and Rick Potter with three hits apiece and Weldon Terrell, Bob Carlson and Rich Carlson with two hits each. Outstanding defensive plays were turned in by Ed Beson, Rich Carlson and Dave Moss.

The tournament's success was due in great part to an excellent umpiring job by Mike Kush and Pat Rodriguez who officiated at the league games throughout the season.

Lincoln-Way reviews training center plans

NEW LENOX — A review of the architect's drawings of the new trainable center for handicapped youngsters between the ages of three and 21, was one of the items of business on the Lincoln-Way High School Board of Education agenda Thursday night.

The plans were to go before the superintendents of the underlying grade school districts for study and will be taken up again by the high school board Sept. 14.

The center is to be located in a building on the high school campus, between the freshman building and the upper school.

The building is to have 6,000 square feet of floor space, will be of brick, matching those in the other buildings, and will cost $150,000.

This money has been accumulated by all the grade districts and the high school district over the past three years with the aid of a two-cent tax levy provided by state law.

The building is to be started in the spring and is expected to be ready for use next September.

The educable handicapped are taught in the special education rooms scattered among the grade districts. The building on the L-W campus will be for those in the trainable handicapped category.

At present these students are sent outside the district, most of them to Joliet and the tuition for them, which is borne by the area districts, is $1,500 to $2,000 a year. There are now 21 of these youngsters for whom tuition is paid. It will be more economical, according to school authorities, for the area to have its own school.

In other business the board hired Mrs. Marlene Gessaman as secretary for the guidance counselors at $400 a month.

WESTHAVEN — Tempers burned and names were called at the Saturday, Sept. 2 village board meeting as Dennis Ward, Westhaven's Building Inspector, was fired and Ronald Henshaw was hired as the village engineer.

Dennis Ward was fired after Turstee Donald Kellogg read a statement suggesting Ward's removal as inspector. Ward's dismissal came after a "yes" vote by Trustees Diane Bartholmey, Kellogg, Ralph Aldrich and Meredith Macki.

Trustee Bill Presler remarked that there are personal problems between the Tekton Corporation and Mayor Curtis Whitaker, and that he did not wish to enter a vote on Ward.

After reading the statement, Kellogg packed his papers and left the meeting.

The new village engineer, Ronald Henshaw, is a member of Cart Carlton and Henshaw Co. Henshaw was recommended by the board and his fees will only come from the village when work is under way.

After being hired by the board, Henshaw remarked, "I think there is a drastic problem here. I have never worked with Tekton before." Henshaw also felt that "the builder may not like what I am going to do, but I will correct the problem and the job will get done."

After the hiring and firing was concluded, Tekton's Hoffman stood and spoke to members of the board and to the people present in the audience.

Hoffman said, "In no other community have we had the problems that we have had here." Hoffman added, "We have attempted to cooperate in every instance."

Hoffman went on to say, "If anyone feels contrary to Tekton we will re-purchase the homes or fix them." After saying that the price of homes is not getting any more valuable because of village problems, Hoffman went on to condemn a man who fit the description of Mayor Whitaker. Hoffman called this "man" a Hitler and said this "man" is the only person tearing the town apart. Mayor Whitaker sat back in his seat with eyes closed during Hoffman's speech.

Hoffman told Mayor Whitaker that the complaints have been finished and that 70 per cent of the homeowners have been completely signed off. The warranty period also was extended for another 90 days, according to Hoffman.

After the tempers cooled, and the meeting was called to its regular session, Mayor Whitaker informed the people that the county police have been contacted, and a meeting with Richard Elrod, sheriff of Cook County, will be held in the near future.

In the area of public services, two crossing guards were hired at $2 an hour. One guard would be stationed at 159th Street and Haven Avenue, and the other at 167th Street and Highview Avenue.

Murphy Insurance Co. reimbursed the village for theft of their $220 air conditioner. The amount of the check was $45.

Due to Ward's removal, Trustee Macki was asked to turn building inspector's office key. Mayor Whitaker moved that the board install a new lock. The motion was seconded and carried.

Popular lecturer to return

MOKENA — The "Travel and Adventure Series," sponsored by the Mokena Lions Club, will launch their second season Friday, Oct. 13, according to Rev. E. H. Albers, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church, chairman of the committee in charge.

The first talk will be given by Robert Brouwer — "America, of Thee I Sing." Brouwer gave this talk at the ladies night program given by the Mokena Lions last year. It was so well received, Rev. Albers said, that it was decided to have him repeat it this year for the benefit of the public.

"Five additional colorful travelogues will be presented during the season," Rev. Albers added, "All of the speakers have spent months in country they talk about, studying the life and customs of the people and taking pictures."

The programs will be presented in the auditorium of Lincoln-Way High School. Season tickets may be purchased from members of the Lions Club or at the Mokena State Bank.

Tickets are available now. Tickets for adults, for the six programs are $7; season tickets for students are $5. Tickets will also be available at the door for each program.

The season schedule (in addition to the Oct. 13 date):

Dec. 8 — "The Canadian Far West," by Dennis Cooper.

Jan. 19 — "Danish Diary," by Stan and Irne Paulauskas.

Feb. 23 — "Bulgaria," by Luben Balabanoff.

March 23 — "A Taste of Israel," by Walter S. Dodson.

April 27 — "Timbuktu, Africa and Beyond," by Romain Wilhelm.

These talks, accompanied by pictures, will all be given on a Friday night, Rev. Albers said, and added that they are high grade entertainment for all ages.

"When one can travel throughout North America, Europe, Africa and the Holy Land for from $5 to $7 one is really getting a bargain," Rev. Albers said.

Proceeds from the ticket sale, after expenses are met, will go to the Lions for their community and international projects.

Excavator cuts gas main

TINLEY PARK — Excavating machinery operated by a contractor for Bremontowne accidentally severed a six inch natural gas main at 164th Street and 76th Avenue resulting in a fire jetting 20 to 30 foot flames skyward for about an hour Tuesday morning.

The incident occurred at 11:30 when the drivers of two cars paused to talk. The heat from their engines ignited the natural gas causing a shock wave to seriously damage one vehicle and scare Pete Glikis of 10741 Lemont Ave., Oak Lawn, according to Tinley Park Fire Chief Robert Bettenhausen.

Unfortunately, when the explosion scared Glikis, he lost control of his car which proceeded under its own power to strike a fire hydrant and, according to Bettenhausen, sent a second jet, this time of water, into the air.

The fire lasted an hour until Northern Illinois Gas Co. workmen could saddle the ruptured main with a valve and shut off the gas.

The Tinley Park Fire Dept. then extinguished the fire even though the water pressure was at a minimum.

No estimate of property damage was available and no injuries were reported.

A Frankfort woman, Mrs. Hazel Williams, R.R. 1, 93rd Avenue, was injured Labor Day in a two-car accident at U.S. 30 and Olympian Way in Matteson. The car, driven by the injured woman's husband, John, reportedly struck the rear of a car driven by Philip Dolowy of Hazel Crest, as Dolowy stopped to make a left turn.

Crash victim

Three fire units respond

FRANKFORT — A fire which started in the loft of an old combination barn and corner on the north side of U.S. 30, owned by Marion Owens, was extinguished Friday morning by Frankfort, Mokena and New Lenox firemen. The alarm was telephoned to the Frankfort department at 8:20 p.m.

At 7:25 Saturday morning the Frankfort department was called back to the scene. Some old baled hay apparently had been smoldering and burst into flame. Damage was confined to the upper end roof sections.

Origin of the blaze was not determined, but vagrants of juveniles have not been ruled out, according to officials.

Because the crib was so close to the highway, firemen had to park two of their trucks at the edge of the pavement, slowing traffic for a time.

The Frankfort department was called out Friday night at 8:05 to assist Matteson firemen. They had a rubbishy plaza on Harlem Av. Matteson filled in for Frankfort Friday morning.

Joliet plans sewer class

JOLIET — Next Tuesday and Thursday, Sept. 12 and 14, Joliet Junior College will offer two courses in sewage and water treatment to its fall curriculum. They will be taught in Building F of the Caterpillar plant and are open to any resident in the junior college district at a cost of $33.

The Mokena village board is sending Larry Spiess, acting superintendent of public works, to this school. His job covers both sewer and water plants.

This is the first year that Joliet Junior College has offered such courses so Donald Stephen, superintendent of public works at Frankfort and Clarence Heisner, an assistant, took such courses at Prairie State Junior College.

Victor Avon and Walter Holt who are in charge of the work at New Lenox have been at school.

There are some communities, however, who are expected to take advantage of the junior college offer and any individuals interested in the subjects or wish to get some training for this line municipal service, can enroll.

The Tuesday night class will acquaint students with water—its source, methods of purification, pumping and pure water chemistry. The Thursday evening course is designed to teach modern principles of sewage treatment plant operation, including basic chemical analysis, mathematics and report completion for the State of Illinois Environment Agency.

Registration will be held at the college until Sept. 12 or by mail at any time prior to the beginning of classes. These courses are offered, it was explained, to increase the student's skills in the area of water and sewage treatment and are not college credit courses.

The instructor will be Walter Walczak, a member of the Water Pollution Conference Federation. He holds a BS degree in chemistry and a minor in mathematics. He is now doing administrative work for Will County.

The classes will begin at 7 p.m. Further information may be obtained on these courses by calling the office of the dean of community services—815-729-9020.

Lincoln-Way studies sites

NEW LENOX — At its meeting last Thursday night the Lincoln-Way High School Board of Education turned down three proposals for a compromise on the school site and elected to stand by the results of the condemnation suit it has pending in the Will County Circuit Court.

The school site committee had recommended the 50 acres at the northwest corner of Cedar and Laraway Roads, as the location for a future high school building.

These 50 acres, it was explained, are part of the 80-acre tract purchased from the executors of the Caroline Bentley Estate at a final figure of $2,000 an acre after the school board brought suit in which the New Lenox grade schools district joined.

Miss Bentley had bequeathed the proceeds from the sale of 160 acres to make up a scholarship fund in her name at Lincoln-Way High School. The grade schools were left the money from the sale of other real estate to be used as was seen fit for the good of the schools. The grade schools plan to use the money to help defray the cost of a new building.

The suit involving the Bentley land sale was settled out of court. The acreage left the high school had originally been purchased by Sheldon Hauck, Dwight Egle, Earl Moss and Carl Batson for $1,750 an acre. Under the settlement out of court the purchasers agreed to pay $250 an acre more, bringing the price to $2,000.

Subsequent to this the Lincoln-Way High School board offered to buy the 50-acre piece at the northwest corner of Laraway and Cedar Roads for the same price as the out-of-court settlement, $2,000 an acre. This was declined after some negotiations, according to Supt. Joe Kruzich, the board decided to exercise its power of eminent domain and through its attorney, Robert Baron, started condemnation proceedings in the Circuit Court. That was on Aug. 18.

At last Thursday night's meeting Hauck and Moss, the latter a former member of the high school board, submitted three proposals. The purchasers said they were willing to sell 50 acres to the school board but not the corner piece. In one proposal the purchasers wanted to retain 30 acres, from Cedar Road for a quarter mile along Laraway. The school district could buy the adjoining 50, facing on Cedar. The price for this 50 would be $2,800 an acre.

Another proposal was for the purchasers to retain 20 acres along Laraway to Cedar. The school could have the adjacent 50 acres, and the owners would reserve the next 10 acres, at the south end. The price under this arrangement would be $3,000 an acre.

The third proposal was for the owners to retain 10 acres on the northwest corner, giving the schools 660 feet along Laraway, and a frontage on Cedar to a 20-acre parcel at the south end of the property. The price for this was quoted at $3,300 an acre.

The board turned down all the proposals and decided to go ahead with the condemnation suit. The board asked for a jury to fix the price of the land.
